Retired Chief Brent Stroman is Selected as the new Executive Director for the 100 Club Heart of Texas

The Board of Directors of the 100 Club Heart of Texas announce the selection of Brent Stroman as the Club's new Executive Director. Stroman fills the position after the resignation of former Executive Director Sandy Pechacek who resigned her position at the end of 2020 to spend more time with family. Stroman served as Interim Director until his selection by the Board on March 31, 2021.

Stroman was one of the original founders of the Club in 2012 and initiated formation of the Club in 2010, while serving as Chief of the Waco Police Department. He served on the Board of Advisors for the Club while he was Chief of Police, and he served as a Director after his retirement in 2016. "I'm honored to serve in this position and value the trust the Board has placed in me. We've built a great organization and have responded and served our police and fire in McLennan County when presented with a need. Our mission and our members are important to the Board, and to me, and I pledge to continue working to grow and strengthen our Club for our mission going forward." Stroman said.

Background

Established in 2012, the 100 Club Heart of Texas is a citizen-based, non-profit organization in McLennan County that raises funds to pay a benefit to help families of law enforcement and firefighters killed in the line of duty in McLennan County. The Club receives no government support, is non-political, and is entirely volunteer-driven. For More information, please visit www.100clubhot.com.
